

1.

illinois credit union foundation (icuf) | visit website

ICUF is a not-for-profit charitable organization which promotes the self-help ideals of credit unions through grants, scholarships and cooperative partnerships. Since 1978, the Foundation has awarded nearly $5 million in scholarships, community service grants, assistance for small credit union development, emergencies and natural disasters, limited income credit unions and community involvement projects.

donate

501c3

2.

selfreliance foundation | visit website

The Selfreliance Foundation is proud to have distributed over $7,500,000 in donations to churches, community and cultural organizations, museums, schools, youth organizations, primarily in the states where its offices are located. The donations have enabled these institutions and our Ukrainian Diaspora communities to flourish. Assets of the Selfreliance Foundation have grown to nearly $16.7 million.

donate

501c3

3.

african-american credit union coalition (aacuc) | visit website

AACUC unites the credit union movement and advocates for the 8th Cooperative Principle focused on DEI. They promote financial inclusion and professional development through their support for all credit unions and create bridges between community-based organizations and consumer-focused initiatives to increase opportunities to close the racial wealth gap.

donate

501c3

4.

national credit union foundation (ncuf) | visit website

The NCUF is the charitable arm of the U.S. credit union movement. The Foundation's mission is to catalyze change through credit unions. They do this through their education and programmatic work; through grants and partnership opportunities, and by aggregating excellence across the system, enabling credit unions to implement and scale more impactful programs.

donate

501c3

5.

credit union women's leadership alliance (cuwla) | visit website

CUWLA are leaders of the credit union movement who are passionate about sharing ideas, building a diverse, inclusive network and supporting the communities we serve. Through bold, open and engaged communication and innovative ideas, they provide a safe space for women CEOs of credit unions with asset sizes of $300 million or less.

donate

501c3

6.

worldwide foundation for credit unions (wfcu) | visit website

WFCU works to positively impact many challenges within the credit union movement. Lack of access to finance. Gender inequality. Climate change and global instability. Talent shortage and competency mismatch. Your donations go directly toward strategic programs that are addressing these global issues through a vibrant and growing credit union system. Visit their website and see all the way your donation dollars can be applied!

donate

501c3

7.

america's credit union museum | visit website

Housed in the building where our country's first credit union was born, America's Credit Union Museum offers a one-of-a-kind interactive experience that brings to life a vision as relevant today as it was 100 years ago. America's Credit Union Museum honors our shared history, documents today's achievements, helps credit unions prepare for tomorrow's challenges, and inspires our industry's collective future.

donate

501c3

8.

faith based credit union alliance | view ncuf award article

The Faith Based Credit Union Alliance (FBCUA) is a collaborative network of faith-based credit unions primarily serving minority communities in the Chicago area, but now also including credit unions in other states like Indiana, Kentucky, and Texas. It aims to provide financial empowerment to underserved communities through affordable financial products and services. The important work they do has been recognized on the national level, including being the recipients of the Herb Wagner Memorial Award from the NCUF. They are a registered 501c3, and although they do not have a virtual giving link, donations can be sent to: Faith Based Credit Union Alliance - P.O. Box 19144, Chicago, IL 60619

mail only

501c3