NORTHWEST COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION and the ILLINOIS HISPANIC CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DEVELOP NEW PARTNERSHIP Shared Focus on Helping Individuals and Companies Grow

(Morton Grove, IL-February 26, 2020) Northwest Community Credit Union (NWCCU) and the Illinois Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (IHCC) share a common philosophy of helping individuals and businesses grow and prosper...both on a personal and financial level. Recently, the two organizations developed a partnership whereby the financial products and services of NWCCU would be made available to all members of the IHCC.

“Bienvenidos! It’s a pleasure for the Illinois Hispanic Chamber of Commerce to have Northwest Community Credit Union as a new member,” said Jaime di Paulo, President & CEO of IHCC. This new relationship will assist many of our members to get better rates on financial products and services, thus helping them to be even more successful in their business ventures as well as their personal lives,” added di Paulo.

NWCCU’s President/CEO, Jose Garcia echoes di Paulo’s comments. “Our credit union philosophy is People Helping People and that is exactly what the IHCC does so successfully for its members,” said Garcia. “We feel that many of IHCC’s members will be able to supplement their existing financial relationships with the products and services we offer, allowing them to achieve a higher level of success in their ventures,” added Garcia.

The credit union industry has recently embarked on a national campaign entitled “Open Your Eyes to a Credit Union.” For more information on this initiative visit yourmoneyfurther.com.
