University of Illinois Community Credit Union Announces Travis Vermillion as Chief Risk Officer

Champaign, IL – University of Illinois Community Credit Union (UICCU) announces Travis Vermillion as its Chief Risk Officer, effective January 2020.

Vermillion brings over 12 years of experience serving with the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA). He was a Lead NCUA Examiner managing teams throughout the Midwest, and he was awarded as the NCUA Examiner of the Year on three different occasions.

“We’re thrilled to have Travis joining our executive team as Chief Risk Officer,” said Chris Harlan, UICCU President/CEO. “Safety and security is foundational to our long-term success, and I’m confident of the positive impact Travis will have on our risk strategy”.

Vermillion's responsibilities include a broad portfolio of functions designed to maintain the integrity of UICCU's continued efforts to identify, monitor and mitigate key risks facing the credit union and be accountable for enabling the efficient and effective governance of significant risks, and related opportunities. In this role, Vermillion will provide executive oversight to the credit union's risk management teams.

U of I Community Credit Union is a not-for-profit, member-owned cooperative that provides a wide range of financial products and services to anyone who lives or works in Champaign, Ford, Piatt, Douglas, Vermilion, Coles, Dewitt, Edgar, Iroquois, Moultrie, and Sangamon, IL counties as well as University of Illinois employees, Carle employees and other select employee groups. UICCU was named one of the 2017, 2018, & 2019 Best Places to Work in Illinois. To learn more, visit uoficreditunion.org.
